WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Allies Mount Drives to Smash Nazi Pockets for Early Win; Guerrillas Pare Jap Strength

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

Forced to view emaciated bodies of atrocity victims near Weimar, German civilians register conflicting emotions. Stories of brutalities led congressmen to call for harsh peace.

membership on the executive council, and with any of the five big nations able to check the use of force or economic sanctions for aggression, many of the smaller countries strove for greater representation of the smaller states in policy making.

PACIFIC: Guerrillas Help
Effective in harassing enemy strength in Europe, guerrillas are playing an equally effective role in the Philippines, where their operations behind Japanese lines are helping to reduce their position. While regular American army units tightened their hold on the Baguio district in northern Luzon, where the Japanese were putting up a last stand, Philippine guerrillas sallied far behind the front lines to capture the big port of Vigan and adjacent airfield and clean up the entire province of Ilocos Sur. Meanwhile, Japanese defenses on bloody Okinawa crumbled under the terrific weight of U. S. naval, low-flying aerial and artillery bombardment, with the Yanks fighting forward through battered entrenchments. Japanese dead far outnumbered prisoners, again indicating the ferocity with which they resisted.

FRANCE: Bombshell
With Marshal Henri Petain still commanding a large following, France seemed as the 89-year-old hero of Verdun of World War I and collaborator of World War II voluntarily returned to his native country to stand trial on charges of plotting against the state. Famed for stopping the Germans at Verdun in 1916 when they threatened to break the back of French resistance, Petain gained notoriety in 1940 for a cooperative policy with the enemy which his followers aver was necessary for him to obtain fair treatment for the stricken nation. Declaring that at his age he had only to fear a failure to perform his duty, Petain said he was returning for trial not only to clear his own honor, but also to protect all of his followers. The peculiarity of the Marshal's position is exemplified by the fact that some of his reforms have been carried over by the De Gaulle government.

MEAT: Supply Cut
Ringing true to predictions that the meat situation would grow even tighter, OPA revealed a 26 per cent cut in supplies this month from April, with slightly more veal, lamb, mutton and pork offset by about 9,000,000 pounds less beef. At the same time, OPA announced that rationing would be extended to cover 99 1/2 per cent of all available meat items, with only about 5,000,000 pounds of mutton left on a point-free basis. Cull and utility grades of veal and lamb and the breasts, shanks, necks and flanks of those meats were put on the red-point list. So that the amount of red points would jibe with the available supplies of meat, point values were upped, with increases of from one to two points a pound for most cuts of all grades of lamb and veal and one point a pound on most beef steaks. Utility grades of veal and lamb will possess the same ration values as the better types.

POSTWAR SECURITY: Discuss Terms
As delegates from 48 United Nations fashioned a postwar organization to keep the peace at the San Francisco conference, they pondered amendments to the Dumbarton Oaks plan, serving as a basis for such a body. Foremost among the amendments were those proposed by China and supported by the U. S., Britain and Russia calling for the application of justice and international law in settlement of disputes; the referral of changes or development of such law to the assembly of the security organization; and the addition of educational and cultural cooperation to the postwar body's responsibilities. With the U. S., Britain, Russia, China and France dominating the organization through permanent vetoes.

FARM VALUES
Farm real estate sales continued in large volume in 1944, activity in the first five months being the highest on record, the American Bankers' association reports. Now, fewer farms are reported as being offered for sale, but the demand is steadily increasing. Farms held by insurance companies, banks, and estates have been sold in most areas and will no longer be a dampening influence on the market, the A.B.A. said.

Keep Troops Moving
Approximately 38,000,000 troops were carried by rail in organized movements from Pearl Harbor to the end of February, 1945, the Association of American Railroads discloses. This number, it is said, does not include the millions of other traveling under orders in smaller groups or the millions of servicemen and women commuting on furloughs.

BARBECUE DINNER FOR MR. AND MRS. SMITH

On Sunday, April 18, Tom Smith entertained his relatives and friends with a barbecue dinner. His father, 91, and step-mother, 77 years of age, live with him. It was a complete surprise to the aged couple until Sunday morning when the crowd began to assemble. It was such a joy for them to greet their relatives and friends—some of whom they had not seen for a long time.

The writer wonders if we who are able and strong, spend as much time with the aged and shut-ins as we should. We can only imagine what a joy it brings to them to know we are interested in them; so let's make it our slogan: "we will carry more sunshine and joy to the shut-ins."

Those enjoying the occasion were: Relatives: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, of Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Smith, Gordon, Ala.; Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Plant and children, Elba; Mr. and Mrs. Alexis Plant, Andalusia; Mr. and Mrs. Sacre Lee Plant, New Brockton; Mrs. C. E. Smith and children, of Elba; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Plant and children, of Elba; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Poole and children, Elba Rt. 1; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bass, Elba.

Friends: Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Barker and son, of Elba Rt. 2; Mr. and Mrs. J. Griffin, Elba; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kendrick and children, Elba; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Maddox, Elba; Mr. W. M. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Jeff Bryan, Ahab, and his more wicked queen, Jezebel; yes, and all the prophets of Babel, and had been gloriously victorious I Kings 17:41.

LESSON FOR MAY 13
Nations as well as people come to crossroads in their history, and taking the wrong road then means future disaster. Solomon had built up a great national prosperity, but at the expense of heavy taxes. He had forgotten God, and was succeeded by a son who followed in his footsteps.

Offered an opportunity to ease the burden of the people (1 Kings 12:26-30). Rehoboam in his folly made it greater, and the nation was divided. The ten northern tribes, which were henceforth to be known as Israel, followed Jeroboam, and the two southern tribes under Rehoboam became the kingdom of Judah. Jeroboam started with God's favor and might have led his people aright, but instead he became the king whose name stood for wickedness (see 1 Kings 13:1-16). The story of that downfall is a sad picture of unbelief and failure.

1. Religion Meets Politics
Jerusalem, now in the rival kingdom of Judah, was the center of Hebrew worship. While the people of Israel were free to go there to worship, Jeroboam saw that it might lead to their being led away from him. It was a shrewd political deduction, but it left God out of the picture. He established new centers of worship, where calves of gold were set up. They were probably intended to be a symbol of his worship, they bespeak the folly of mixing worldly things with the things of God. They became an abomination and a snare.

The people responded to the apparent interest of the king in their welfare, and worshipped at the most convenient place. Religion had met politics, and had let politics take the upper hand.

Someone has suggested that when we begin to find ways to make our religion easy, we can be certain that it is the enemy of the soul who is at work. When Satan begins to be so solicitous about our welfare and suggest that it is the far to go to church, or that the weather is too cold (or too warm), etc., etc., we begin to wonder. Religious ease was a big step downward for Israel, and it can be for any other church or denomination. The prophet felt that it was lost, but God revealed to him that even in that dark day there were many who were still true to Him (v. 16). It is a precious and engaging bit of light in an otherwise dark scene.

Our main interest in this lesson is not the experience of the prophet, but in seeing the cause of Israel's downfall. Here we see one great reason—every king of Israel was a wicked man. Some were better and some worse, but all of them forgot God.

III. A Nation Meets Its Doom
(1 Kings 17:1-16; 18:1-16; 19:1-16; 20:1-16; 21:1-16; 22:1-16; 23:1-16; 24:1-16; 25:1-16; 26:1-16; 27:1-16; 28:1-16; 29:1-16; 30:1-16; 31:1-16; 32:1-16; 33:1-16; 34:1-16; 35:1-16; 36:1-16; 37:1-16; 38:1-16; 39:1-16; 40:1-16; 41:1-16; 42:1-16; 43:1-16; 44:1-16; 45:1-16; 46:1-16; 47:1-16; 48:1-16; 49:1-16; 50:1-16; 51:1-16; 52:1-16; 53:1-16; 54:1-16; 55:1-16; 56:1-16; 57:1-16; 58:1-16; 59:1-16; 60:1-16; 61:1-16; 62:1-16; 63:1-16; 64:1-16; 65:1-16; 66:1-16; 67:1-16; 68:1-16; 69:1-16; 70:1-16; 71:1-16; 72:1-16; 73:1-16; 74:1-16; 75:1-16; 76:1-16; 77:1-16; 78:1-16; 79:1-16; 80:1-16; 81:1-16; 82:1-16; 83:1-16; 84:1-16; 85:1-16; 86:1-16; 87:1-16; 88:1-16; 89:1-16; 90:1-16; 91:1-16; 92:1-16; 93:1-16; 94:1-16; 95:1-16; 96:1-16; 97:1-16; 98:1-16; 99:1-16; 100:1-16.

LARGE SPIDER

The Clipper has on display in a well-sealed glass jar an unusually large black spider, brought in by Mrs. J. S. Moore, of Basht. The spider was found in the road Sunday in that community. The body is covered with hundreds of small spiders. We never saw anything like it before—but then we don't know very much about "bug-ology" anyway.
